*"A woman who fears the Lord is to be praised."
Proverbs 31:30*

Women's Weekend Seminary covers all six seminary departments over a three year period. Two weekends are offered each year, one in the fall and one in the spring. Each weekend concentrates on only one department and is taught by seminary professors in that department. Three courses are taught Friday night and five are taught Saturday morning, followed by an elective on piety. These courses are open to all women and may be taken for a Certificate in Women's Ministries (see below).

You choose:

- 1) Non-credit means you can take one or all courses, but you don't have to do homework.
- 2) Credit toward a Certificate in Women's Ministries means you must
  - a) take all 8 (or 9) courses for six weekends
  - b) complete all assigned reading
  - c) do a women's or children's ministry.

Cost: $50.00. It doesn't matter if you take one course or nine, the flat total cost is $50.00. Some scholarships available.
